

Best wishes from INSS for a

HAPPY NEW YEAR

This year was marked by our ongoing efforts to address issues on Israel's national security agenda with fresh, creative ideas that support innovative policy recommendations. The Institute's strong learning environment enables informed, up-to-date, and relevant policy-oriented research. We invite you to look at some of our achievements of the past year. We would also like to take this opportunity to thank the friends and supporters of INSS that have helped the Institute, Israel's leading think tank on security, reach many important goals.

167 Policy papers in various INSS publications

Main topics: The Iranian nuclear challenge and Iran's aspirations for regional hegemony, the future of Syria, Israeli-Palestinian relations, the challenges of the Trump administration.

22 Books and research studies

This year, too, the annual Strategic Survey for Israel was presented to President Rivlin in an official meeting at his residence.

Briefings for hundreds of government and military officials, diplomats, journalists, and students from Israel and abroad

2018: 2nd annual summer course for graduate students from abroad.

83 Events: conferences, seminars, simulations, and other forums including the 11th annual international conference, the leading political-security event in Israel.

Thousands of appearances in the local and international media: op-eds, radio and TV interviews, and newspaper articles

A special issue of the Jerusalem Report was devoted to INSS.

1.1M

Visits to the INSS website
an increase of 25 percent in the number of visits over last year.

1.1M

Twitter impressions
an increase of 50 percent in the number of impressions over last year.

4M

People reached by INSS Facebook posts
an increase of more than 200 percent in the total activity over last year.

50K A new weekly podcast has earned 50,000 downloads

35 podcasts were recorded, with over 60 people interviewed.

20K Over 20,000 subscribers to the INSS mailing list including subscribers to newsletters in various fields, among them: cyber, law and national security, Jewish-Arab relations, China, and Europe.

SAVE THE DATE

27-29
01.2019

The Annual International Conference