

Israel-UAE-US: A Year of Cooperation

Join us for a virtual conference marking the one-year anniversary of the signing of a cooperation agreement between the Institute for National Security Studies (INSS) in Tel Aviv, the Atlantic Council in Washington DC, and the Emirates Policy Center in Abu Dhabi. The panels will discuss the progress since the announcement of the Abraham Accords in 2020, the implications for regional peace and security, and future opportunities and challenges for advancing relations between the parties and across the region. The event will feature remarks from politicians and researchers, among them the UAE Minister of Economy and Israel's Minister of Regional Cooperation.
