

Table of Contents

|                                                                                                     | Page |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Map                                                                                                 |      |
| Editor's Introduction .....                                                                         | 1    |
| I. Is a Stable Internal Lebanese Arrangement Possible?.....                                         | 3    |
| Yosef Olmert                                                                                        |      |
| II. The PLO's New Military and Political Posture in Lebanon .....                                   | 9    |
| Gabriel Ben-Dor                                                                                     |      |
| III. Syria's Strategy in Lebanon after the 1982 War:Objectives, Methods, and Achievements ..... | 15   |
| Itamar Rabinovich                                                                                   |      |
| IV. The United States in Lebanon: Unfulfilled Expectations .....                                    | 24   |
| Nimrod Novik                                                                                        |      |
| V. The Soviet Union and the Lebanese Situation .....                                                | 31   |
| Galia Golan                                                                                         |      |
| VI. The Israeli Operative Aspect .....                                                              | 37   |
| Uri Lubrani                                                                                         |      |
| VII. In the Aftermath of the War in Lebanon:Israel's Objectives.....                            | 40   |
| Yitzhak Rabin                                                                                       |      |
| About the Editor and Contributors .....                                                             | 46   |